

Gen. Richard H. Anderson Camp #47, SCV
Minutes of Monthly Meeting
December 6, 2010

The meeting was held at Harmony Lodge #22, AFM on Depot Road in Beaufort, SC. It was called to order at 7:00 PM by Camp Commander Paul Griffin, followed by the reading of The Charge.

The invocation was offered by Chaplain Andrew Pearson and Color Sergeant Vince Covington led the Camp in the pledges and salutes to the flags of the United States of America, the State of South Carolina, and the Confederate States of America.

Guests for the evening were introduced by Commander Griffin (list attached).

Guest Speaker was SCV Commander in Chief Michael Givens who gave a very interesting talk on Robert E. Lee.

Commander Griffin:

1. Announced a plan for seating arrangements at the Lee-Jackson Banquet. Tables will be named for a battle of the War Between The States and may be reserved for a $25.00 contribution which funds will be used for the Guardian Program.
2. Reminded Compatriots of the Southern Heritage trip to Alabama. Details may be found on the SCV Web Site.
3. Told Compatriots to be sure to get a copy of the December 20th Beaufort Gazette (He would not say why???)
4. Announced that Compatriot Pat Garrett needs donations of Door Prizes for the Lee-Jackson Banquet and to please contact Pat if you can donate an item.
5. Reminded everyone there will be no meeting next month as the Lee-Jackson Banquet will be held on January 15th.
